

Art Performance at Chaktomuk Theatre Hall

Phnom Penh, March 29, 2011 AKP –

Cambodian art performance, given at Chaktomuk Theatre Hall in Phnom Penh once a week, every Friday, has gained a lot of national and international public.

The public art performance, co-organized by the Department of Performing Arts at the Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts and Cambodia Association of Travel Agents (CATA), aims to give the dissemination of the art, culture, classical dance and Khmer custom to Cambodians and foreigners.

Other purpose is to promote the tourism in the country, mainly attract the local and foreign guests to relax at the Theatre every Friday. –AKP

By THOU Peou