

PM: Cambodia Needs More Technical Workforce

Phnom Penh, March 29, 2011 AKP –

Prime Minister Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen said Cambodia needs more technical workforce to respond to the country's economic growth.

"We need the state and private technical institutions to work actively to produce our country's technical labor force in response to the economic growth," Samdech Techo Hun Sen said in a graduation ceremony in Phnom Penh.

"I appeal to relevant ministerial agencies to pay much attention on technical training to supply the labor market in order to increase productivity, attract investment and promote the country's economic growth," Samdech Techo said.

According to H.E. Vong Soth, Minister of Labor and Vocational Training, there are currently 38 technical institutions being functioned in the country with some 66,850 students. –AKP

Article in Khmer by CHEY Phum Pul

Article in English by KHAN Sophirom